

Kuljit Sidhu

Visalia, CA 93291 sidhukelly@yahoo.com (559)362-8553

Professional Summary

MBA candidate and strategy professional with experience in business analytics, product planning, and stakeholder engagement. Skilled in translating data insights into actionable growth strategies, leading cross-functional initiatives, and improving operational performance. Proven ability to manage complex projects, build collaborative partnerships, and deliver innovative solutions that balance customer experience, business objectives, and compliance.

Professional Experience

Onsite Medical Representative / EMT – Amazon FAT1

2021–Present

- Lead risk mitigation and compliance programs, driving operational efficiency and reducing incidents across a high-volume fulfillment center.
- Analyze key performance indicators to identify trends, guide strategic decision-making, and implement continuous improvement initiatives.
- Partner with site leadership, safety, and HR teams to align employee well-being with business goals and regulatory standards.
- Manage cross-functional projects, ensuring seamless execution of safety and compliance initiatives in a fast-paced environment.
- Mentor and train teams, improving process adoption and organizational performance.

MBA Consulting Project – Homeboy Electronics Recycling – Pepperdine University

2025

- Developed a comprehensive growth and marketing strategy balancing revenue generation, social impact, and environmental sustainability.
- Conducted market research, consumer interviews, and competitive analysis to uncover opportunities for brand positioning and operational alignment.
- Built and presented executive-level recommendations on customer segmentation and product strategy to drive long-term growth.
- Modeled anticipated outcomes of proposed initiatives to inform leadership decisions.

Emergency Medical Technician & Field Training Officer – Lynch Ambulance

2018–2021

- Coordinated patient care with hospital staff and multidisciplinary teams, ensuring smooth operational handoffs and adherence to compliance standards.
- Trained and mentored new EMTs, aligning onboarding processes with organizational goals and performance standards.
- Recognized as Employee of the Month (Jan 2020) for outstanding teamwork and leadership.

Emergency Transport Team EMT & Field Training Officer – CHOC

2019–2021

- Partnered with physicians, nurses, and respiratory therapists to deliver high-quality care during critical neonatal and pediatric transports.
- Served as a key liaison between hospital teams and transport services, aligning operational protocols with organizational priorities.
- Led training efforts to ensure team readiness and compliance with specialized patient care protocols.

Education

MBA – Pepperdine Graziadio Business School (Expected May 2026)

B.S. Public Health – University of California, Irvine

Certifications

Lean Six Sigma Yellow Belt – Amazon

EMT Certification – West Coast EMT

Skills

- Business analytics & strategy development, cross-functional collaboration & stakeholder engagement, project & process management, market research & competitive analysis, data-driven decision making, relationship management & communication, Microsoft Office (Excel, PowerPoint, Word, Outlook), Keynote, Smartsheet