

MARKAYLA MARINER

CONTACT

 Markayla Mariner - LinkedIn

 330.671.8386

 markayla.mariner@gmail.com

 Cleveland, OH

PROFILE

Detailed-oriented, resourceful Public Health advocate who is able to identify root cause issues and develop plans to solve disparities. Passionate about disease prevention, community health, and youth development. Future aspirations include obtaining a Masters in Public Health (MPH) and serving minority and underrepresented populations. Completed a Contract Tracing course through John Hopkins University for becoming adept in reducing COVID-19 and trained in Mental Health First Aid.

WORK EXPERIENCE

Disease Intervention Specialist

Cuyahoga County Board of Health | 2023-

- Investigates positive STI laboratory tests (HIV, syphilis) within Northeast Ohio region as guided by Ohio Infectious Disease Control Manual
- Provides referrals, education, risk reduction information about STI prevention and linkage to care services to patients.

Community Outreach Patient Navigator

Cleveland Clinic | 2021-2023

- Worked with Nurse Practitioner, Program Managers, and community partners to schedule cancer screenings, primary care appointments; identified and resolved 600+ patients' barriers (transportation, coverage for screenings, support)
- Completed HOPE Mammogram Clinic-75+ women screened
 - Abstract: Homelessness, Onsite Mammography, Patient Navigation, and Education \(HOPE\)

Case Manager

Youth Opportunities Unlimited | 2019 - 2021

- Assisted youth aged 14-24 with personal goals; guide to community resources to reduce barriers. Created a Monthly Newsletter for youth and families with job application links, career prep, community events, and local family resources
- Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Advisory Council
- Trained in Mental Health First Aid and Mandated Reporting

AmeriCorps Member/ Senior Corps Member

City Year Cleveland | 2017 - 2019

- Assisted 3rd -9th grade teachers in CMSD district improve students' English skills through mentoring and tutoring; reduced absenteeism by 30%; Afterschool Programming
- Fostered positive environment by incorporating social learning and emotional learning into lesson plans

VOLUNTEER EXPERIENCE

National Coalition of 100 Black Women, Inc. | Greater Cleveland Chapter | Cleveland, OH | 2022-present

Advocacy organization that promotes equity through health, education, and economic empowerment for women and children of color

Summit County Public Health | Akron, OH | 2017 – 2019

Planned events with SCPH Outreach Team for Minority Health Month

SKILLS

- | | |
|----------------------------------|---------------------|
| • Analytical Research | • Communication |
| • Salesforce | • Critical Thinking |
| • EPIC/Electronic Medical Record | • Adaptability |
| • Cultural Competency | • Empathy |
| • Data Analysis | • Creativity |
| • Customer Service | • Problem Solving |
| • Leadership | • Teamwork |

EDUCATION

Bachelor of Science in Public Health
Global Health Concentration
Kent State University
Completed May 2017

STUDY ABROAD EXPERIENCE

Tropical Diseases in Latin America

Rio de Janeiro and Manaus, Brazil | 2016

Gained knowledge of endemic diseases of Brazil, including malaria, leprosy, tuberculosis, and Zika virus. Studied tropical diseases in the Amazon rainforest. This study was hosted by the Oswaldo Cruz Foundation, led by Dr. Mark James, PhD.